

2016-2017 Scholarship Recipient

Hugh S. Ferguson Endowment Scholarship

Nicholaus Smith

Senior, Washington State University

Nicholaus is working toward his Construction Management degree and a minor in Business Administration at Washington State University. He serves as recruitment coordinator of the Associated Students in Construction Management club.

Nicholaus has been captivated with the idea of pursuing a career in the construction industry since a young age. He has enjoyed exposure to the construction industry through labor and internship positions with Dunkin and Bush and his latest internship with Lydig Construction.

Upon graduation, he hopes to work for a commercial contractor who aligns with his personal aspirations and values, supports personal growth and development within the company, and provides and encourages opportunities to give back to the community.
