

2016-2017 Scholarship Recipient

Robert McEachern Memorial Scholarship

Hugh S. Ferguson Endowment Scholarship

Sam Flor

Senior, Washington State University

Sam is working toward a Construction Management degree with a minor in Business Administration at Washington State University. He is an active member of the Associated Students in Construction Management, the Design Build Institute of America student chapter, and the Honors College. He played football for Washington State for four years, and received two varsity letters and two All-Academic Pac-12 Honorable Mention awards.

Sam started his college career in the Civil Engineering program, but after talking to faculty members in the Construction Management program, he realized his true calling was in Construction Management. He is enjoying an internship with Bayley Construction and is hoping to join their team full-time after graduation. His long-term goal is to become a project manager.

In his spare time, he enjoys sports, fly fishing, reading, video games, and spending time with his family and friends.
