Tucker Jones

Junior, Washington State University

Tucker is working toward his Construction Management degree and Business Administration minor at Washington State University.

He serves as the events coordinator of the Design Build Institute of America (DBIA), treasurer of the Mechanical Contractors Association, and student ambassador for WSU's School of Design and Construction. Tucker is also an active member of the Associated Students in Construction Management, and plans to participate in the Associated Schools of Construction (ASC) and DBIA student competitions in the coming year.

Tucker has been interested in construction for as long as he can remember. He recently interned with Andersen Construction, specifically working on a three-building mixed-use multi-family project in Issaquah.

Upon graduation, Tucker hopes to work in commercial construction with a mid-sized company, preferably in the Pacific Northwest. However, his ultimate goal would be to eventually start his own construction company in central Washington.
