Wesley Purdum

Senior, University of Washington

Wesley is working toward his Construction Management degree at the University of Washington. He will be a senior this year and will be participating on two student competition teams. He is the captain of the design-build ASC student competition team, and is a team member of the mechanical team.

Wesley has been in the construction industry for 15 years. He began his career in the industry as a laborer on a framing crew. Wesley's hard work allowed him to advance in his career. Through this progression, it became apparent that he needed to return to school to reach his long-term career goals. Wesley is currently performing his internship for San Juan Construction, Inc. on the island of Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands.

After graduation, Wesley hopes to become a project manager and ultimately move into operations. In Wesley's free time, he enjoys spending time with his wife and dog, hiking, camping, golfing, fishing, and traveling.
